Things you can do:

- Give your company a competitive edge with a professional design
- Save yourself heartache and frustration by being able to change your own content, on your schedule
- Improve your search engine ranking with the ease of posting new content and with built-in SEO tools

Things you can avoid:

- Don't put up with an old look & feel
 - Don't put up with old content just because your developer can't or won't get to it
 - Don't put up with poor search engine results
